Setting up of Rural Industries Federation and rural markets

†3677. SHRI JANESHWAR MISHRA: Will the Minister of AGRO AND RURAL INDUSTRIES be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are considering to set up Rural Industries Federation for extending help in the development of the rural industries in the rural areas;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether Government are getting products of high quality produced with the help of small scale rural industries and self help groups of women in the villages and if so, the details thereof; and

(d) whether Government are planning to develop rural markets in the other metropolitan cities of the country on the lines of Dilli Haat and if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF AGRO AND RURAL INDUSTRIES (SHRI MAHAVIR PRASAD): (a) No, Sir.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) Yes, Sir. In the khadi sector, artisans and workers associated with registered khadi institutions produce high quality silk, muslin, wool and cotton khadi items. Similarly, entrepreneurs and self help groups (SHGs) (the latter mostly women) in rural areas, assisted under the Rural Employment Generation Programme (REGP) of the Government, implemented through the Khadi and Village Industries Commission (KVC), produce a veriety of good quality products such as detergent powder, agarbattis, fancy articles, processed food products, ready made garments, pottery items, wooden toys, footwear, etc. Further, under the Swarnjayanti Gram Swarozgar Yojana (SGSY) implemented by the Government in the Ministry of Rural Development, the assisted SHGs, majority of whom are women groups, produce a variety of quality products like traditional jewellery, wooden toys, kalamkari paintings, cane and bamboo furniture, etc.
